FOIA No. 2013-522

Dear Mr. Greenewald:

This letter responds to your recent Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request received by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) and assigned to the Consumer & Governmental Affairs (CGB) and Enforcement (EB) bureaus by the Commission's FOIA Office on August 27, 2013. Your request seeks copies of all complaints received by the FCC regarding the MTV broadcast of the Video Music Awards on Sunday, August 25, 2013.

My staff conducted a search of the databases containing informal complaints and identified one hundred and sixty (160) complaints responsive to your request. Copies of the responsive documents are enclosed. The Enforcement Bureau found no other documents responsive to your request.

All personal identifying information relating to the individuals who submitted or are named in the enclosed complaints or inquiries has been redacted based on Exemption 6 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose files that would clearly invade personal privacy.<sup>1</sup> Some FCC employee names have also been redacted based on Exemption 2 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose internal personnel rules and practices.<sup>2</sup>

The FCC receives many complaints and comments that do not involve violations of the Communications Act or any FCC rule or order. Thus, a complaint or comment does not necessarily indicate any wrongdoing by any individuals or entities named in the complaint or comment.

FOIA and FCC rules require the FCC to charge requesters for time spent searching for and reviewing responsive documents, and for copying them.<sup>3</sup> Based on your classification as a representative of the news media, you are responsible only for the payment of duplication costs beyond the first 100 pages. We are providing you with approximately 160 pages of records, resulting in copying charges of $6.00 (160 pages less 100 pages @ $0.10 per page). Because the duplication charges would likely be less than the routine cost of collecting the fee, we have decided not to assess any fee.<sup>4</sup> Because preparing the response to your request falls within these limits, there is no charge for processing your request.

If you think this response denies your FOIA request, you may file an application for review of this decision with the FCC's Office of the General Counsel within 30 days.<sup>5</sup> Both the application and envelope containing it must be marked "Review of Freedom of Information Action" and the application should refer to FOIA Control No. 2013-522.

Miley Cyrus's performance was too indecent for TV. It amazes me that a strip club is opening in Atlantic City, and the performers there will be forbidden to simulate sexual acts, but Myley Cyrus did just that on national TV.

Problem Description

Indecent performances by Miley Cyrus and Lady Gaga. Particularly the Miley Cyrus act. Children with my family viewing were 10 to 16 and the performance was intentionally sexual, indecent and profane. This performance appeared to be rehearsed and endorsed by MTV. Rating was TV 14 but it was not appropriate even for 16 year-old.

I don't want to have to be forced to pay for MTV showing Miley Cyrus rubbing her crotch with a foam finger. If people want to voluntarily pay for it that's their right, but I'm being forced to with these packages. It's not right we all have to pay for this garbage.

Oh and by the way, if someone says the Satellite companies are private and can do what they want, send them a bill from NASA for all the technology they're using paid for by the taxpayers of the United States, starting with the Mercury missions.

Problem Description

Miley Cyrus and Lady Gaga's raunchiest VMA moments

With a nude bikini and a foam finger, Miley Cyrus and Lady Gaga. These two singers were easily the most provocative performers at the MTV Video Music Awards on Aug. 25, 2013.

This is not the first case in which this channel has misrepresented what was being shown, but I want it to be the last time.

I do not want to pay for these networks, when I pay my cable bill. I would like to see measures in place where everyone has the option of not having channels that they do not wish to have in their house and not pay for them. I am asking that the FCC would force the networks to break up the packages that they sell to the consumers so they will only have to pay for channels that want in their household.

Let the consumer have the ability, using their checkbook to determine what is being shown on TV.

Thank You

This broadcast was made without any prior warning of adult content and obscenity. My ten year old daughter was watching with us as a singer she had previously admired and watched consistently on the Disney Channel twerked and gyrated and dry humped a foam finger in front of a live audience. As the producers and any governing standards and practises bodies chose not to put a fair warning at the head of the show, my daughter was compelled to bury her head under the covers. We were staying at a hotel on the last night of a family vacation and were watching live TV together. I was shocked and disgusted at the smutty performance of Miley Cyrus AKA Hannah Montana! Please censure the producers of this program.

Miley Syres did a performance with teddy bears, sticking he butt in a man face, making obscene, suggestive movements, resembling a porn show. It was very offensive, and upsetting at a time when children would be watching the show. MTV was also airing condum commercials. This was rated X, this was prime time, and suppose to be safe for children 14, and up. It was disgraceful and upsetting. It had children running to their parents, and parents jaws dropping. The want to see the FCC take action against them. CTR10

The show was labeled as suitable for viewers 14 years of age and older. In her performance, Miley is constantly paying attention to, pointing to and using a prop/touching on her genital area. There is also a simulated sex act with the partner she sings with. During the production, there is an almost constant reference to sex, both visually and in the suggestive lyrics of the song.

I am a school teacher. I cringe knowing that we have 8th grade girls in my school who saw this program, and I don't believe it was appropriate for any age except an adult or PPV channel....certainly MTV saw the rehearsal, and I find it difficult to believe that they felt it was totally appropriate for CHILDREN ages 14-18. If this is allowed to pass, then WHAT'S NEXT??? If Miley wishes to perform in this fashion, that is her right as an adult, but the appropriate venue is the many strip clubs looking for dancers....it is NOT to perform for CHILDREN. There is a time and a place for everything....certainly this was NOT APPROPRIATE and those responsible should be held ACCOUNTABLE.

Since the original airing the extremely suggestive dance has been on the news and various other programs, not to mention that MTV has run the program in its entirety several times during the day and night since the original airdate. Please investigate this program and fine them, if permitted. This has got to stop!

Problem Description

Here we are nearly a week has passed since that discusting display of profanity by Milly Cyrus and another unlady like woman. I fail to understand why the FCC is not criticizing MTV for airing such profanity on their VMA awards program. MTV should be severely fined for allowing profanity on the network. The VMA Awards promoters should be fined at an even greater rate than MTV for allowing such programing on the air, and Miss Milly Cyrus should be fined and jailed for performing such sexually provocative material on TV and being a family show being aired during the early evening hours. Of course I'm looking for an answer. I already know nothing will happen to any of these people, especially since our nation has become a truly Liberal Socialist nation now. But thanks anyway. Miley Cyrus (an actress/recording artist) twerked (danced a provocative booty dance) up against Robin Thicke's (a recording artist/actor) genitalia. Also, she groped a woman's posterior-without hesitation. In addition, she made very sexually suggestive gestures, using a giant foam-like "fanatic's finger", as if it was a phallus. She also used that object to rub Robin Thicke's genitalia. Music Television (MTV) rated the program TV-14. That program did not, in the least, meet the TV-14 criteria. I am a parent of school age kids and I want action taken against the network.

My family watched this show and was absolutely shocked and disgusted with the portion involving Miley Cyrus. Where were the controls for this type of pornographic exhibition, do we not have rules for TV viewing? I think that the executives for MTV should receive a fine and a harsh warning for this. They allowed it. My daughter's watched this and they found it extremely over the top. What kind of message are we sending to our viewers both as parents and children. I have never submitted a complaint to the FCC before and hope that something can be done to stop this type of behavior and "so called entertainment."

Problem Description

Indecent and profane content was broadcast by MTV during the MTV video awards. Miley Cyrus touched her genitals and touched the genitals of an older man while performing music. She exposed her tongue numerous while grinding her exposed buttocks on the front of the pants of the male performer in a simulated sex scene while performing. She also simulated oral sex with a foam finger. The performance crossed the lines of common decency and penalties should be enforced.

Problem Description

I believe it was the MTV Awards with Miley Cyrus. The show has gotten so vulgar and her act, along with other females, was just disgusting! And we have little girls and boys watching the show. It has gotten to the point of just absolute filth and these performers need to be fined millions for this filth!

Problem Description

Although the VMA's often push on the boundaries of behavior appropriate for family viewing, the Miley Cyrus/Robin Thicke performance this past Sunday night was disgraceful, indecent, obscene and vulgar.

Their performance, which included pantomiming sexual acts, should not be allowed on television.

I feel the performers, show producers, and the network should be condemned for glorifying this behavior.

Miley Cyrus and Robin Thicke gave a music performance that was sexist and racist: the subject matter of Thicke's song "Blurred Lines" promotes rape, and Cyrus's performance was both sexist, in that she was barely clothed and dancing submissively and vulgarly, as well as racist in that she was objectifying black women, using them as props for entertainment value.

Problem Description

I was signing in for an xray at the hospital this morning. No one was ahead of me, so I stepped right up to the reception area where they had me sit down and get insurance cards, etc. My children, ages 4 & 6 sat down in the waiting area directly behind me, watching tv. I was busy signing in, the tv was well above me, and I was not aware of what was on-just background noise and I was focused on signing in. When I finished and joined them, I saw the tail end of a segment they were watching and it had some obscene, pornographic clips from some award show the previous night. I was horrified that my children saw these images. They showed Lady Ga Ga and Miley Cyrus simulating sexual acts in minimal, provocative clothing.

I watched the VMA with my family and was surprised and disgusted to see Lady Gaga's outfits and how Miley Cyrus was dressed yet alone her performance gyrating and sexual gestures with that stupid foam finger with Robin Thicke who is old enough to be her father. I though I was watching child porn!

My daughter was even surprised of Slutty Cyrus, Shame on MTV for allowing that kind of TRASH to be aired along with that tasteless condom commercial after every break.

What kind of example is Lady Gaga, Slutty Cyrus suppose to show young girls, is this the way how MTV wants to get there ratings are they that desperate?

I know MTV is known to push the envelope but this OUTRAGEOUS!

There has to be more censorship advising viewers before and during any programming deemed inappropriate and I think the FCC is not doing enough about it, maybe they are scared of networks like MTV because of the big money they donate!

I along with other parents will start a petition for more censorship and try to prevent TRASHY programming to be aired what is supposed to be entertaining.

Someone was sleeping @ the FCC to let that slip by.

Problem Description

I found Miley Cyrus's "performance" on the VMA Awards, (in which she simulated various sex acts as well as rubbing her genitals with her hands and other objects as well as simulating masturbation), in front of a live and television audience made up of mostly impressionable teens to be extremely lewd, perverted and disgusting. It bordered on bad pornography. I was deeply offended, disgusted and amazed that such filth would be allowed to be shown on prime time television.

This is the most disturbing and vile performance of any entertainer I have ever seen on television.

These so called performers wore the least amount of clothing and danced provocatively on the stage. It was very offending and violated everything that children should be watching. Why I say this is because, young adults with children (6-10 years of age) watching this exposes this behavior that it is alright to act and dress this way (especially Girls). To me it is not what I think the FCC should allow unless it is Pay per view or shown at a very later time. say 1:00 am in the morning. Singer Miley Cyrus performed an act on live TV during primetime that was offensive, obscene and appeared to appeal to the Pedophile audience. She also touched the man's groin with the rubber hand. My family was horrified by this performance. The FCC has got to reign in the media. Enough is enough. This isn't the America that I knew. It is so disgusting that our tv has been allowed to reach such depths as to what went on with Miley Cyrus's obscene and x rated moves on the VMA show. Why is this allowed with so many children watching and parents thinking it would be a good family show. This type of entertainment has to be stopped, and the people and network responsible has to be fined a lot of money.

I am beyond being repulsed at the programing of MTV this week featuring Miley Cyrus and Lsdy Gaga in the Video Music Awards. This show was absolutely adult rated and in no way fitting for teens as young as 14. This was pure porn. It was disgusting and raunchy. There must be something done about this continued effort of the entertainment world's attempt to sexualize out teenagers. Question is will you do anything about it. I hardly think so. It must be stopped. Recently your agency made public your intentions to lax the restriction on what could be aired....more foul language and more sex. GOD HELP THIS NATION and those who desire to pump more filth into our living rooms. DO something and earn your pay.

Problem Description

I would like to complain about the act that was performed by Miley Cyrus specifically on the MTV Video Music Awards on Sunday, 8/25/13 at 9pm. Her performance was lewd and disgusting and should not have been allowed to be shown on TV. Even people in the audience were shocked at her performance. This performance was intentionally planned to be lewd and shocking and should never have been allowed to be performed in front of a live audience on national TV. In her pre-performance interview she stated that she doesn't rehearse what she is going to do on the night of the performance. She just is a spur of the moment performer. I believe the FCC should be some kind of limitations on what is allowed for these live performances. Her actions were suggestive and pornographic and I am shocked and appalled that the FCC wasn't more involved to NOT ALLOW this kind of performance. Lady GAGA's performance was tame in comparison to Miley Cyrus. Miley Cyrus needs to be spanked and fined a great deal of money to punish her for her awful behavior. Shame on her and shame on the FCC for allowing this to take place.

I cannot believe that the FCC would allow MTV to broadcast live obscene sexual acts like the ones Miley Cyrus performed on the MTV Music Video Awards. This was during prime time when children were likely still up watching television with their parents. I was shocked to see Miley bending over and grinding her butt on Robin Thicke's genitals and using a prop to stimulate sex. Good heavens! I'm certainly no prude, but even I was shocked. I would like to see the network, MTV, and Miley Cyrus / Robin Thicke fined - and not a small fine, either - because they went way too far with that performance. It was disgusting. A million dollar fine for the network, a million dollar fine for MTV, and a million dollar fine split between Miley Cyrus and Robin Thicke sounds fair to me. And while you're at it, future censoring of sexually explicit material seems necessary because performers seem to have NO boundaries anymore. And you - the FCC - aren't doing your job either. Get with the program FCC!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

There were several musical/theatrical performances that contained obscene sexual material, despite the show rating of TV-14. These acts included, touching the penis of a performing musician, simulating rear sex by the female bending down in front of the male and rubbing her vagina against his penis. There was touching and pretend masterbating by the female performer (Miley Cyrus) with an object in the shape of a penis. There were large teddy bear creatures apparently presenting like they were strung out on drugs. In fact, it was a sex filled "play" v.s. a music performance, where the characters simulated sex, all content inappropriate and violating children's welfare by presenting adult content on a TV-14 program.

All programs on TV should be cleaned up, nothing is fit for children or young people to watch, and it's very embarrassing for adults. Problem Description

The performance by Miley Cyrus deserved an "TV MA" rating and should not have been publicized as being acceptable for children fourteen years of age. I think programs that have explicit sexual performances should be rated as such, just as any movie with explicit sexual content would be rated "R." The performance was unacceptable for the rating and MTV should be fined at the least for the false rating.

I would like to file a complaint in regards to the VMA's. The show was not clearly defined TV-MA rating in which the performance by Miley Cyrus was clearly a performance for Mature viewers. I think MTG and Miley Cyrus must be held accountable for poor decisions that both parties made with the airing of the performance.

Problem Description

On Saturday August 24, 2013, I was watching the MTV Video Music Awards with my 10 year old niece. She was really excited to see performances by Bruno Mars, Taylor Swift and Macklemore. Her excitement quickly turned into shock when Miley Cyrus and Robin Thicke came out and performed the most obscene, raunchy performance that she had ever seen in her life for the song Blurred Lines. It almost looked like she was having sexual intercourse while on stage, making obscene gestures with a foam finger between her crotch. It just seems like the FCC allows those MTV performers to get away with these obscenities and say whatever they want with no reprimand. Had this been 10 years ago, this kind of performance would not be approved to go on air. It is sad that the FCC will allow these distasteful performers and shows to continue to air. I would also like to point out that Miley Cyrus song ?We can?t Stop? makes direct references to ?Molly? which is a designer drug on our streets. She is not a role model, she is actually encouraging kids that listen to her music to ?Dance with Molly? (A powdered form of Ecstasy). I don?t feel like we should be subjected to watch this kind of soft porn during peak hours. I hope you take my complaint seriously as this needs to stop, and as the Federal Communications Commission its is your job to see that it stops!

My best regards,

Problem Description

I did not watch the show live, but have seen only news highlights and social media postings by others. What I have seen is enough to be upset by how inappropriate Mylie Cyrus' and Lady Gaga's performances were. Allowing anyone to perform in minimal clothing, such as a seashell adorned thong or nude bra and underwear, is inappropriate for a network that is geared towards an adolescent aged audience. The lack of clothing is upsetting enough. There is no reason these celebrities should be allowed to perform a vocal performance without actual clothing and not underwear. It is even more repulsive that a show that had multiple rehearsals allowed Mylie Cyrus to perform such lude, provocative, and suggestive behavior. The show did not air in our home, but it is still very difficult to protect my family for the images since the performance created such a media uproar. The behavior of these two celebrities was inappropriate, repulsive and most importantly, preventable since this was a rehearsed and scheduled broadcast. I have not only lost respect for these celebrities, but also what I assume are educated individuals that lead these networks and production companies.

Miley Cirus was appallingly obscene. She started by bending over and shaking her butt. Than Shen bent over in front of singer for blurred lined like they were having sex dogy style, than she litterly felt him up touching his privates, she put her face in a fake butt, she pretended to give oral sex, she kept touching her private areas and she was dress like a whore. Ok this is the first time I'm doing this. I doubt you'll do anything.

I've never made a complaint against anyone, but I feel that as an educator I have to stand up and say, "enough is enough." Miley Cyrus' performance on the VMA awards show was beyond inappropriate, it was downright porn. The rating for the MTV show was rated at 14 years of age, however it should have been rated X. Too many times the lewd and lascivious acts poured out of the television screen without warning are viewed by young children. I feel that Miley Cyrus and MTV should be fined for the disturbing performance she made on the awards show. She had clothing on, but just as well been strutting around naked. I did not appreciate her simulated sex acts performed on Robin Thicke. The FCC has for years ignored and not "nailed down" people to be made accountable for the trash that is out there on TV. MTV can't top her performance next year, unless they get someone to point blank have sex on the stage. Their constant desire to go further and push the boundaries is why we have this vulgar discusting programing. Our children deserve better.

The opening act by Miley Cyrus was disturbing, disgusting and pornographic. I had no expectation that I would be subjected to this when I tuned in. I hope that the FCC has the authority to slap a huge fine on MTV and Ms Cyrus, perhaps see that someone is fired. This is beyond the pale. I expect not to like every part of this show, and I expect that I will have to turn off some of the show to come back in to see the parts that are truly musical and artistic - such as Lady Gaga and Justin Timberlake and Macklemore & Ryan Lewis. But, I will never watch this show in realtime again. I have never written a complaint about anyone before, but she was DISGUSTING and this should not be allowed on TV, except pay-per-view porn.

This was completely inappropriate for a 14 year old and action should be taken to make sure it doesn't happen again.

Miley Cyrus has continued her parade of perversity onto one of the most watched events of the year, The MTV Video Music Awards. Her performance was the most disgusting things I've ever seen on television which can be only be compared to pornography. This wouldn't bother me so much if I didn't know that a lot of America's already impressionable youth was watching this event but they were, Even worse there were teens patronizing her for "not giving a f***". Many times during this performance she proceeded to rub her genitalia and making suggestive movements orally as well. She then proceeded to grab Robin Thicke's genitalia and dry hump him on stage. For the sake of our youth and our morality don't let this go overlooked, please do something.

The Miley Cyrus performance on the MTV 2013 Video Music Awards rubbing her genital area with a "foam" finger like those used at stadiums along with her grinding dance performance with singer Robin Thicke was vulgar and distasteful. Dressed in a "skimpy" latex bikini, she bent over to rub her buttocks against Robin Thicke's groin which caused him to have a slight erection which can be easily noticed through his pants. Millions of teenage and pre-teen children who watch this show to see their favorite music celebrities were exposed to her "dirty" dancing and sexual display. We condemned the Janet Jackson performance during the 2004 Superbowl halftime show. This is probably even worse!

While many of the performers were obviously trying to shock, Miley Cyrus' performance with Robin Thicke was past the line of an acceptable performance meant for viewing by "tweens," teens and even pre-teens. The sexualization of American girls is rampant, and to put this kind of show on in a viewing time, on a weekend, when young girls and boys are watching their "idols" is reprehensible. Miley Cyrus needs to be detoxed from her behavior, her clothing, her dance moves, and taught how to keep her tongue in her mouth. I suggest 12 months in a convent! However, it's time the FCC stepped in and put this program on notice that they've gone waaaay too far, and to shut them down, and fine Ms Miley Cyrus for her lewd and lascivious shenanigans!

Problem Description

I watched the VMA Awards program live and it is a good thing my 9 year old daughter was not with me at the time because I would have had a lot of explaining to do. Here is where you can watch a clip of her 'routine'...

http://www.people.com/people/package/article/0,,20302940\_20728423,00.html It was bad enough at the start, and only got worse. If you pay close attention in particular starting at 3:05 into the clip I've provided, with special emphasis at 3:50-4:00, you will see a dance routine best left to the pole businesses and not any television program where kids are EVER likely to be watching. The crotch grabs were numerous and unnecessary, including the grabbing of other performers crotches, simulated sex scenes, and so many pelvic thrusts that a black box placed over the performer on a television screen may as well be for the entirety of the 'performance'.

At best, it should have been rated NC-17. I cannot even begin to say how offended my husband and I both were. And they have already re-aired this program at least once that I know of, and undoubtedly will repeat it again... where children are likely to watch it all over again.

Can you please require that this 'show' be RATED AT AN NC-17 so my parental control locks will kick in (which they do over a PG rating)?

I would prefer they be fined substantially and prevented from ever re-airing the program but I will settle for an NC-17 rating, warning labels, hefty fine for both the network AND the performers, and some form of protections and ratings higher than PG-13 for all future airings of any and all award shows with this artist performing again, this 'show' included.

Thank you!

Problem Description

They showed Miley Cirus rubbing herself against a male singer in the MTV awards. I took pictures of it. I am in the waiting room of a car service company waiting with my six years old son and he saw it. They should not have aired the material, or should have blurred it, or should have alerted viewers of sexually suggestive material coming.

I love music and I can appreciate creativity but with Miley Cyrus twerking her butt in front and touching Robin Thicke on stage and hanging her tongue out like she just coked up back stage ....really !!!! So tasteless, I hope her career takes a dive to show her America is cleaner than that. How can this program allow showing her rub her foam finger between her crotch during the whole song... Just horrible !!! if I had young children at home I would never allow to watch MTV, they would be watching another channel....Someone's hands should be slapped over this one... I would rather see Janet Jackson's boob then Miley's act.... (that's pretty bad)

Problem Description

While it is normal to see shocking acts by music performers during this particular show there was one particular segment that was considerably uncomfortable to watch. The music performance by Miley Cyrus and Robin Thicke had numerous actions of sexual groping as Miley used a foam prop to rub the crotch of Mr Thicke and made suggestive sexual motions as she danced thrusting the foam prop between her legs as if it were a penis. Additionally one portion of the act, Ms Cyrus turned her back to Mr. Thick and bent over allowing him to place his groin against her rear again making suggestive sexual actions. I believe these actions are well above the standards considering the youthful demographic who enjoy the trends in modern music. The emphasis should be on music and not shock for credibility while the taint a younger audience.

Lady Gaga wore a thong. Miley Cyrus was in her underwear. Miley Cyrus shook her face in the butt of a woman. Miley Cyrus ran a foam finger on Robin Thick's crotch. Miley Cyrus shook her butt up against Robin Thick's crotch. The program was obscene. There was way too much sexuality and sexual suggestions for national television. MTV should have done a better job at turning the cameras away from such images. They should have been better prepared and made a better effort to know what's going to happen in the show.

There needs to be a stronger effort to regulate such obscene, profane, indecent, and sexuality on television. If professional athletes are being fine outrageous amounts of money in the name of safety, then the same should happen in television.

Seems like entertainers these days can get away with everything. In the 80s and 90s, the FCC was all over people who acted like raunchy animals. Can we get people dressed like skanks and twerking their bottoms off of TV? It's bad enough that all this explicit language is allowed on live TV and in music. I wish the FCC would punish entertainers for breaking the rules by banning them from being on the airwaves. No radio play, no television appearances.

Problem Description

VMA awards and Miley Cyrus: Need I say more? She was crude, pornographic, and absolutely shameful. Had I wanted my family to see a hooker perform a live sex show, I would have taken her to Tijuana. It was, at best, a third rate exhibition of what a pedophile would like to see during a child pornography live show. When she started throwing her hand and arm in a manner to simulate a male jacking off, that was bad enough. Then she continued to fondle herself with a foam finger, and then she backed up against her male co-singer's genitals in a doggy-style position and humped him like a bitch in heat. This went on for several minutes. The opening, with the teddy bears and ?teddy? outfit, was disturbing enough, but once the little whore started simulated masturbation and intercourse on stage, we had to leave the room. You can say all you want about youth and the stupidity of youth (i.e., Miley's youth and her stupidity), but the network should have known better and not allowed it, period.

If the FCC doesn't fine the network, then the FCC doesn't have any business using my tax money for anything at all. Trust me when I say, I will monitor what the FCC does about this, and then call my Senator and Congressmen about this new ?hands-off? attitude the new FCC has. Do your fucking job (I would normally not use the word ?fucking?, but you don't really seem to care about such things anymore).

The event was pitiful on all fronts, especially the FCC allowing this reprehensible show. Talk about a paper tiger - the FCC has no teeth anymore. Why bother? Why not let network TV show ?Deep Throat??UNANNOUNCED. I sat down to watch some PG rated TV with my family and we got a crude, pornography, sex show shoved in our face. Sure I could turn it off ? I DID! But I would have like to have known BEFORE I sat down with the family to watch this vulgar and offensive show. Once my family saw this disgusting behavior, it was too late. I thought the FCC was there to protect us against such atrocities. Guess not. I'm more ashamed of the FCC than anything else. Shame on you! Do something!! Fine the network. Fine Miley Cyrus. Make a damn speech or something. Just do SOMETHING.

Problem Description

The show included a song/dance by Miley Cyrus. She performed very sexually suggestive acts on stage, simulating self-masturbation and sexual intercourse with another man simulating in turn behind her she removed some of her costume to reveal skin-colored clothing probably to appear closer to nude she bent over and shaked her half-naked but cheeks to the crowd whom can be seen with looks of disgust and embarrassment on their faces. There was no warning that this show would be presenting such a display of sexual behavior by a young woman. This site is the advertisement for the show:

Problem Description

As everyone is well aware of by now, MTV chose to broadcast a performance by Miley Cyrus that went too far. Having a married man dry-hump a 20-year-old dancing around with a giant foam finger while she touches herself and everyone else in the genitals was completely wrong and went too far. I am by no means a prude, but my husband and I were both sitting there shaking our heads wondering what the heck just happened. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE do something to make sure this doesn't happen again. It was 9 PM, it's still summer vacation, and kids are watching!

I did not watch the award broadcast but watched the video after hearing a lot about it today. I am appalled and very disappointed that this type of trash gets past you! Where is the censorship? The Will Smith picture says it all with the expressions on the children's faces. I don't know the protocol but I would hope there would be a way to get a handle on it ahead of time. After all, what are you there for, if you can't? My children are grown and I worry for my grandchildren. Don't you have children and don't you worry what they are exposed to? The media has such a huge influence on our younger generations and it is ashamed that we don't have good examples for them!

Problem Description

The performance by Miley Cyrus during this awards show was unbelievable. I know that there have been improper performances in the past on many shows, but this one tops the cake! Her look, her actions, her whole performance was disgusting, obscene and it was disappointing to see that aired on public television. There were no "innuendos" so to speak, but rather everything that was sexual and perverted was in your face.

Problem Description

Completely disgusted with Miley Cyrus antics on stage at the VMA Awards. That behavior was completely uncalled for seeing that so many young children were watching. Her gyrating and bending over in front of the singers crotch with her tongue sticking out is obscene and her manipulation of a foam finger was also unacceptable. Tv has gone from being too censored to the other extreme. There needs to be a clamp down on this type of programming.

Problem Description

I can not believe that you allow so much trash on tv as MILEY CYRUS presented last night on the VMAs. She was filthy. Constantly rubbing her crotch while she danced around with teddy bears. Dry humping, which they call twerking apparently, with Robin Thicke, who himself is in a "committed relationship" and has a child. This is RIDICULOUS that its was allowed on the air. These performances are REHEARSED!! Executives knew what was going to air. To think of the huge outcry that was made because Janet Jackson flased half her breast and now THIS is allowed without reprecussion? Really? You have got to do something about what we are presenting as a nation. That video is forever going to be on youtube. What examples are we giving? What are we telling other nations is important to us. What kind of society are we in that on prime time tv we allow this on our televisions? A fine needs to be laid down, a HEAVY fine, and stricter guidlines so we can get back to decent television and entertainment. If people want to see strip club material, then they should do exactly that, go to the strip club. This performance was horrendous!

The indecency in which Miley Cyrus performed on the MTV award show last night was by all purposes, 'soft porn'. How and why was she allowed to perform those disgusting mannerisms. Robin Thicke should be equally held accountable. This makes the incident with Janet Jackson look innocent. From the use of a 'foam finger', to her tongue, to her bending in a sexual position is disgusting. MTV has always had a reputation of television smut and last night it just added to its disgusting reputation. If people want to see this filth - make it a paid program. Don't tell me I have to 'block' a station. If people want to see this - let them pay for it - THEN you will see how they lose ratings. Children are seeing this garbage. I didn't even watch it and I am upset. It's all over the internet and the news. THEY SHOULD BE FINED ABOVE AND BEYOND WHAT IS THE NORMAL PENALTY. TAKE THE STATION OFF THE AIR AND MAKE PEOPLE PAY FOR IT IF THEY WANT TO SEE SOFT PORN!!! Entertainers rehearse even before live shows so the station manager was NOT surprised and should have stopped it before it aired. At the very least, a commercial should have immediately cut through it!!! So many heads should roll on this.

The FCC should investigate the MTV VMA Awards show for indecency. Miley Cyrus's performance was pornographic in nature. She was acting out sexual acts and using objects in a sexual manner. This was not a family friendly performance at all! She was gyrating all over others and using a foam finger in her crotch as well as other sexual innuendos. Rubbing her butt and vagina area all over.

Also, Lady Gaga did a performance in a string bikini bottom with nothing but a string up her butt crack.

This was as shameful as it gets she shamed herself, her family and everyone watching and you for airing it. You should have taken it off as soon as she starting promoting her filthy actions. She has shown what she is acting like a devil flicking that tongue as deamons do. Being a Christian Im taking a stand as these people push vulgarity and teaching women to act like trash is not going to stand for a woman being a lady would never conduct herself like that. I do not understand why the station is required to silence or bleep out curse words but is able to show the use of a very large foam finger to simulate sexual acts over and over again. Appears to be a double standard over allowable verbal comments during a live broadcast versus visual displays.

The shows put on during this time were way too graphic and indecent. Miley Cyrus made multiple sexual gestures and was just purely disgusting. It was hard for me to watch at 29, I cannot believe this was rated for kids 14 and up! Lady Gaga was practically naked and very indecent... Was this really necessary to put on a good show? I think not. I've seen classier porn!

Problem Description

Miley Cyrus performed on the VMA awards with barely nothing on and proceeded to perform obscene movements and gestures with her tongue, fingers and a toy hand simulating having sex and other disgusting things. What is so wrong with this is not only was it inappropriate but she used to be a girl that little girls looked up to and now they are being subjected to pornography on TV by MS. Cyrus.

Myley Cyrus who used to be a young sweet tv idol to children put on a display of sexually explicit acts on tv. Gyrating and using a very large finger glove to put on a display of disgusting movements. This was a program where children probably tuned in to see Myley Cyrus as Hanna Montana, not some ignorant disgusting sickening display of a girl who should be punished for her behavior. I cant believe she would stoop so low.

It was disgusting seeing Miley shove her butt in Robin Thickes crotch and then using the foam finger as a "penis" while she thrust in and out. I believe MTV should be fined, along with Miley & Robin.

Miley Cyrus (former Disney child pop star) performed on the MTV Awards show in her underwear and simulated sex acts by gyrating and using a finger pointer to point to people's private areas. The moves and actions "performed" by Miley Cyrus were deplorable. Obscene, indecent and completely inappropriate for anything less than an "R" rating. Where has censorship gone? Even watching the other celebrities' reactions in the audience reflected how I felt. I'm not a prude. I have never written before, never complained, but I am hoping you get enough complaints that a change is made in how far someone can go on shows that are aired on TV open to kids and families.

 Lady Gaga in a barely there bra and I'm thong panties showing it all? Followed up by Miley Cyrus in a lingerie teddy grabbing her crotch? I would expect to see that on Showtime or HBO.
